

Scaffold Safety

Unless you are performing an emergency service stay off scaffolds during storms, high winds and severe weather.

When snow and ice have accumulated, remove them before doing work.

If, because of an emergency, you must work, use a safety harness and lanyard.

